For Immediate Release

Baxter Communications Group Commits a Donation to the Wounded Warrior Project for Every Registration.

July 18, 2011 (Houston, Texas) – Baxter Communications Group, LLC, an environmental, emergency response and homeland security regulatory training firm out of Houston, TX has announced that, starting in July of 2011, it will donate $5 to the Wounded Warrior Project for every public training registration it receives through each of its training groups, the EPA Alliance Training Group (www.epaalliance.com), The DHS Campus Training Group (www.dhscampus.com) and the Response Institute (www.responseinstitute.com).

“As a Veteran-Owned business, we support and understand the sacrifices our military and their families go through on a daily basis. We are proud to play a role in assisting our wounded soldiers as they return home to their family, friends and loved ones. Our annual contribution will lend a hand in funding important programs that help returning warriors take on their next challenges here at home. We are proud to support such a worthy organization as the Wounded Warriors Fund”, said Jeremy Kelley, President of Baxter Communications Group.
